

Letter 245: 28 May 1525, [Strasbourg], Capito to Johannes Oecolampadius

Printed in BrOek 1, pp. 368-69, Ep. 258.

[Summary]: Capito fears grave danger and recognizes the need to stand on guard for the church. Because of the actions of a few, thousands have been killed [in the massacres of Saverne and Scherweiler on 17 and 20 May]. Some brethren have perished in the upheaval.
