

Letter 326: 28 February [1527, Strasbourg], Capito to Johannes Oecolampadius

Printed in BrOek 2, pp. 34-5, Ep. 468.

[Summary]: Capito has read Thomas Murner's blasphemous and scandalous [Der Lutherischen Evangelischen Kirchendieb- und Ketzerkalender (1527)]. He warns Oecolampadius not to respond in the same manner and stoop to Murner's level. His scatological writings embarrass the papists. Greetings to [Jakob Meyer zum Hirzen] and [Kaspar Schaller], the mayor and secretary of the city of Basel, respectively. Greetings from [Martin] Bucer and the rest of the brethren. [Agnes Roettel], Capito's wife, and nurse in his present illness, also sends her greetings.
