

Letter 408: [End of April 1530, Zurich], Ulrich Zwingli to Capito and Martin Bucer

Printed in ZwBw 4, pp. 556-57, Ep. 1014a and CorrBucer 4, pp. 89-91, Ep. 292.

[Summary]: [Felix Brennwald, a former mayor] would like to apprentice his son, [Hans Jakob Brennwald] to the Strasbourg city scribe, [Peter Butz]. Zwingli recommends the skill and character of the young man. He regrets imposing on Capito and Bucer with his request, but the Brennwalds are relatives to whom he cannot deny this favour. If Butz cannot take the young man, he hopes they can find another suitable place for him. The parents are willing to pay up to 20 florins. Matters in Zurich are well, except for a poor harvest.
