

Letter 448: [Between 2 and 7 September 1531], Basel, Symon Grynaeus to the preachers of Strasbourg

Printed in CorrBucer 6, pp. 95-97, Ep. 457.

[Summary]: The reply to [Henry VIII] has been prepared. It is up to the Strasbourgers to send it in this form or give it more consideration. Nothing will be done until the king sends his personal messenger. He doubts that Philip [Melanchthon] will supply an answer. He has already written to him twice. Grynaeus himself cannot advise them of the best response. He will follow their advice.
