

Letter 589: [10 January 1536, Zurich], Heinrich Bullinger to Capito

Printed in HBBW 6:59–60, Ep. 719.

[Summary]: Bullinger cannot make any public promises concerning the forthcoming meeting. He thanks Capito for Philip [Melanchthon's] books. So far, he has read them only cursorily and can therefore give no opinion, but he notes that Melanchthon is more circumspect now. He does not understand what Capito writes about a new order of the church. He does not wish to seek reconciliation with the Catholics. The rule of the pope is the rule of Antichrist. The kingdom of Christ will make greater progress without the Catholics.
